II. Principal's Report (David Landeryou): Welcome and thank you to the PreK teachers and Mr. Colten (PE)

Parent/teacher conferences will be held on Feb. 12th.

III. Teacher's Report: Gave thanks for the Holiday gifts they rec'd from the PTA

IV. Treasurer's Report (Julie Scott): Still short on our dues and contributions by about 2K; some of the money reflected in the 45K Actuals are for bulk supplies.

FLES will likely come in about 2K under budget due to some unexpected expenses for classroom rental.

Will likely hit the goal of 8K for Xmas Tree sale after all is entered.

V. Dues Update (Jennifer Felten): Currently 71 households out of 240 have not paid their dues and supplies. Reminders have been sent out and we will continue to focus on collecting these dollars. We will continue to discuss how we avoid this in the future.

VI. KEHP Report (Lisa Nadel): Nothing to report

VII. Committee Reports (Maria Emmanuel): The auction plans are moving along. There is still a need for volunteers and donations, as well as, new ideas for donations. The committee would like to focus on technology for the fund-an-item this year.

VII. Other Business:

Bench project – the 5th grade is currently working on a project to provide benches for the blacktop/playground area. At the auction, 5th grade parents will be able to “buy” a bench or go in on a bench for these areas.

Drop-off signs – Linda Reveal is working on signs to help direct traffic in the morning in order to make drop off easier. There is some question as to the legality of whether we can put these signs out and who will put them out and bring them in each day.

General PTA meeting – In order to promote more participation at the meeting, we will promote the agenda/special speaker and put out reminder signs.

Heard on the Blacktop – How can we get more people to volunteer, how can we encourage new parents to get involved (mentoring program), and how can we get parents to respond to the room parents. There is some growing frustration surrounding these issues among people who regularly volunteer.

Meeting adjourned.
